High Prices in India.
Increase in the price of grain and foodstuffs throughout India has become a serious matter on account of the poverty of the masses and the low wages paid for labor, according to a report made by Consul General William B. Michael to the bureau of manufactures. He says that foodstuffs have advanced 40 per cent. during the last two years in India, while rents have advanced from 50 to 60 per cent. The cause of this advance is ascribed by some, he says, to the export of too much grain and other food commodities from the country, thus limiting the supply and enabling a certain class of speculators to raise the price of foodstuffs. There is discontent among all classes, except the very wealthy, because it is almost impossible to live becomingly on present salaries and daily wages.

Society at Caracas.
The ladies of the government were the most gorgeous of tropical butterflies. They were all the colors at the same time and jewels in profusion, but you seldom looked farther than the paint and powder. I had seen a dark girl in Porto Rico powdered until she looked like a rusk, but she was at rest! These gaudy Spanish, Spanish-Indian, Spanish-Negro creatures were pinked and scarletted, and whitened on face, throat and neck until the original color appeared only on the upper arms; and after they had danced for an hour one thought of the delta of the Mississippi in the old green geography! And so we all danced, painted and unpainted alike, and only the unbelievable fluorescent description in the next morning's paper can give an adequate conception of what the Caraqueñans thought of it.—The Atlantic.

Not a Reassuring Phase.
"An official of the government should regard himself as a servant of the people."
"I don't know about that," answered Miss Cayenne. "Have you ever observed how haughty and dictatorial some servants become?"

Unsuccessful Diagnosis.
The man's cough grew worse, so he resorted to the physicians.
"From the stomach, I think," said Dr. Sinton.
"Pardon me, there is no such thing as a cough from the stomach," answered Dr. Modern.
"From the effects of vaccination, I should say," announced Dr. Nature.
"Indeed," replied his colleague, Dr. Serum, "let me remind you that (except tetanus, blood poisoning and graft), there are no evil effects of vaccination."
"Well," said Dr. Experiment, "it is not to be expected that we should all agree."
"On one thing we are agreed," cried Dr. Getrox, "that is to charge $5 apiece."
But the widow refused to pay.—Life.

Taming a Refractory River.
Since the timber has been stripped from its mountainous drainage basin, embodying an area of 27,000 square miles, the floods of the Susquehanna have been extremely sudden, violent and destructive. Such a particularly outrageous stream is the Susquehanna that it is difficult to find room upon it even to navigate a ferry boat comfortably. One of these quiet reaches is McCall's Ferry, where a part of Washington's army crossed on its way to do up Cornwallis at Yorktown. The commander himself crossed at Conowingo ford, 14 miles below. At this historic spot some clever engineers are demonstrating that the Susquehanna is good for something, after all, for they are building a hydro-electric power plant which is remarkable not only for its size but in many other respects as well.—Technical World.
